

TUESDAY 25

AN IMPORTANT AWARENESS

These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God (1 John 5:13).

This verse of scripture was written by the Apostle John towards the closing part of his ministry, and he considered it essential to remind God's children of something very fundamental. He was addressing those who already believe in Jesus Christ, reiterating that they “know” they have eternal life. The word “know” is the Greek “eido,” which means to observe and become aware.

He wants you to observe and become aware that you have the organic and existential attributes of deity. This awareness is important because your consciousness of your identity in Christ influences the way you live and the decisions you make. It shapes your reactions and determines the outcomes in your life. Also notice the latter part that says, “...and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God” (1 John 5:13).

There're two striking things John points attention to: one, observe and become aware that you have the God-life, the God-nature. Secondly, believe on the Name of
