

TUESDAY 11

EXERCISE YOUR AUTHORITY IN CHRIST

Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you (Luke 10:19).

The Lord Jesus gave us power and authority, and you don't need any special faith to exercise that authority. You don't need to 'work up' faith to exercise your dominion in Christ. Therefore, simply take your place in Christ and “...Resist the devil, and he will flee...” (James 4:7).

Perhaps there have been recurrent cases of sickness or other kinds of challenges with members of your family; exercise your authority! Declare, “Satan, I command you to stop your manoeuvres and operations in my home and amongst my family members, in the Name of Jesus!” Every demon will bow and leave.

Sometimes, in some homes, there could be so much anger—everyone seems to be on edge—tension fills the air and no one knows why. You that are born again in that home should exercise authority over the demon of anger. Find a quiet place to pray, and then say, “You spirit of anger, get out of this home.” You don't need to shout or jump around; just speak with authority and command the
