

life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life (1 John 5:11-12 ESV).

It's this divine nature that sets Christianity apart from the religions of the world. 2 Peter 1:4 says we're partakers of the divine nature; associates of the God-kind. This is the heart of the Gospel: the exchange of your frail human life for the glorious, indestructible life of God. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for the life of Christ in me; sickness, diseases and infirmities can't thrive in my body because I have eternal life. The divine life in me has gained ascendancy over my spirit, soul and body, and I walk in absolute dominion over Satan and the elements of this world, in Jesus' Name. Amen.
